Question Two: (30 points)

Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

Business Studies is a popular choice for students who are choosing a degree course in the UK. We went to meet twenty-two-year-old Ricky Miles, who is about to graduate in Business Studies.

What exactly have you studied over those four years?

Quite a lot! Maths, of course, Accounting, Finance and Economics. Oh yes, Marketing and Sales, too. I also did a course in Management, which is about recruiting and managing staff, and how to deal with conflict, and a course in Advertising. We all had to do IT, too, because computer skills are essential.

1 What did you most enjoy about the degree?

The work experience, definitely. One of the companies offered me paid work last summer, so I managed to get even more experience that way.

What kind of company was that, and what did you do there?

It was a company that provides financial products – savings and pensions, mostly. At first I just ‘shadowed’ different people. Then I did quite a lot of checking for them – you know, checking their calculations. When I went back in the summer, I was in the sales department. My job was to follow up web enquiries, and send out further information to possible clients.

1. The text states two examples of financial products. Write them down. (4 points)
2. What did Ricky Miles study in the course of Management? (6 points)
3. What does the underlined word "their" refer to? (5 points)

Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

Although megaprojects vary in terms of size and cost, they are all, by definition, expensive, public projects that attract a high level of interest and media coverage. Masdar City, which began its development in 2006 CE, will be the world's first carbon-neutral, zero-waste artificially-created city. The city will run entirely on renewable energy sources. It is built on an advanced energy grid which monitors exactly how much electricity is being used by every outlet in the complex.

Furthermore, in order to reduce its carbon footprint, Masdar City will be a car-free zone, designed to be pedestrian and cycle-friendly. Electric, driverless cars will operate as public transport vehicles, and the city will be connected to other locations by a network of roads and railways.

Energy will be provided by solar power and wind farms, and there are also plans to build the world's largest hydrogen plant. A desalination plant will be used to provide the city's water, with 80% of water used being recycled.

The current residents of Masdar City are all students at the Masdar Institute of Science and Technology, a university whose students are fully committed to finding solutions to the world's energy problems.

1. The text states some sources of energy. Write down two of them. (6 points)
